All of our music groups have increased in size this year. We have 68 band members, 65 members in the Mixed Chorus, 76 girls in the Girls' Glee Club, and 38 members in the Boys' Glee Club.

The band performed at several homecomings and festivals this summer and put on some very entertaining half-time shows at the football games this fall. We were honored with a request from Heidelberg College to share the half-time program with the Heidelberg Band at their DAD'S DAY football game. We accepted the invitation and had a lot of fun preparing the show.

The band and choruses are preparing a Christmas program to be given December 20. They are also getting ready for a concert to be held in the latter part of January.

We are also getting ready for the contests. Individual and small groups are preparing for the Solo and Ensemble contests. The band and choruses are getting ready for the District, and we hope State, Band and Chorus Contests. Of course it's almost impossible to do as well as we did last year, but we can certainly try.

Many, many thanks to Mr. Willeke for his patience and untiring efforts to make us have a really outstanding music department. Thank you, Mr. Willeke.

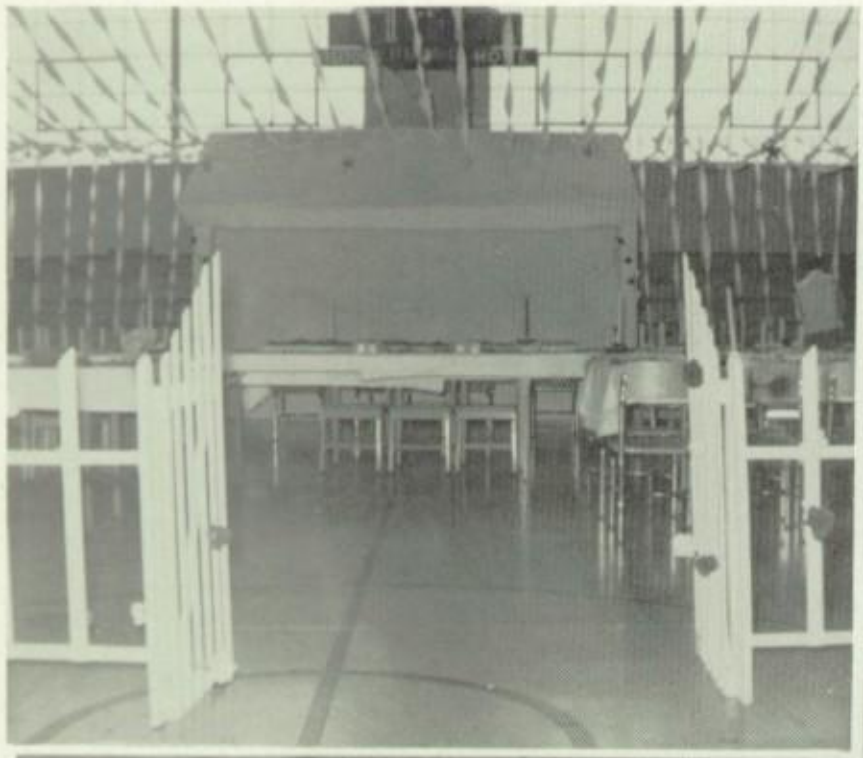
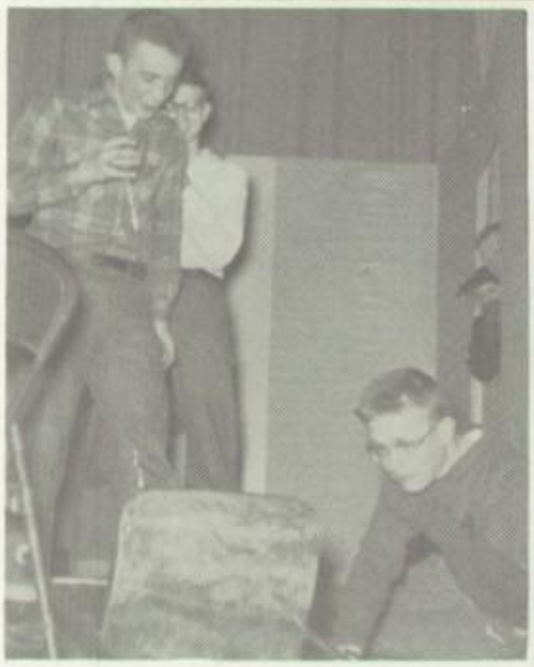
QUEENSALLY





Jokes

Mr. Rost: I'm sure this theory will prove correct. I've had it in my head for ten years.
Kemp Young: Sort of aged in the wood isn't it?

Tom Long: Could you love two girls at once?
Gary Houdeshell: Immediately, where are they?

Lewis Frantz: Why do they put holes in swiss cheese?
Jerry Businger: Beats me, it's limburger that needs the ventilation.

Fred Stevenson: I've an insane desire to take you and squeeze the breath out of you.
Brenda Bowman: That's not insane, that's talking sense.

Marlene Clinger: Isn't Frank married?
Phyllis Stahl: No, and I don't think he ever intends to be.
Marlene: What makes you say that?
Phyllis: Well, he's studying for a Bachelor's Degree.

Harold Bower: My uncle was kicked out of the submarine corps.
Dick Fink: Why did they do that?
Harold: He liked to sleep with the windows open.

Leila Wolford: Why did they put you out of the antique shop?
Ruth Ann Klotz: I don't know. All I did was walk in and ask, "What's new?"

Mr. Castor: The exams are now in the hands of the printer. You have three days in which to review the six weeks work. Any questions?
John Hindall: "Who's the printer?"

Barbara Waxler: Whenever I'm in the dumps I get a new hat.
Duane Warner: I was wondering where you got them.

Larry Rettig: Do you think Mr. Rost had enough fire in his speech?
Larry Woodward: My opinion is he didn't put enough of his speech in the fire.

Sally Grimes: (A pedestrian) What's the matter, are you blind?
Catherine Hartman: Blind! I hit you didn't I?

Mr. Daley: When rain falls, does it ever arise again?
Raymond Bower: Yes Sir.
Mr. Daley: When?
Raymond: In dew time.

Janet Ward: What does R.S.V.P. mean on this invitation?
Charlotte Smith: Rush in, Shake hands, Vanish Promptly.

Mary Ann Alexander: The trouble with you is, you're always wishing for something you haven't got.
Dorothy Waltermire: What else can I wish for?

Sue Hindall: When I looked up and saw that big bear, chills ran up my spine.
Mr. Bibler: You mean chills ran up and down your spine.
Sue: No sir! They were too scared to make the return trip.

Mary Jane Bishop: Do you like conceited boys or the other kind?
Jean Beach: What other kind?

Mr. Willeke: Do you play by ear?
Kenny Fink: No, my neck doesn't stretch that far.

Our Junior year was spent under the supervision of Mrs. LaRoche, and Mr. Daley. We lost George Grohoske. We had 30 in our class at the end of the year.

Class Prophecy

THE OLD GAZETTE
August 1, 1980

Larry Rettig and Larry Woodward have just broken the track record at Indianapolis Speedway, which is owned and run by Richard and Kenneth Fink, Inc. The trophy was presented to them by the famous movie star, Mary Alexander.

The first woman to reach Mercury in her rocket-XV2 was Catherine Hartman, where much to her surprise she met Kemp Young who was busy splitting atoms.

Duane Warner is replacing Groucho Marx on "You Bet Your Life." His first contestants, Raymond and Harold Bower, were previously on the $64,000 Question where Tom Long is master of ceremonies.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stevenson, the former Brenda Bowman, have just opened a new Animal Hospital at Williamstown. Their first patient was a new type of furless cat, owned by Marlene Clinger. It seems the cat put up quite a furry.

Sue Hindall and Jerry Businger have just opened the new Hall of Fame dancing school.

The nominations for the Presidential election of 1980 was announced over the wide-wall television screen. On the Republican ticket is Janet Ward and John Hindall. Representing the Democrats are Gary Houdeshell and Charlotte Smith.

Attention! All women who want to eat and still lose weight will be able to do so by entering the Slimette Salon where Misses Leila Wolford and Barbara Waxler will guarantee you to look as good as two of their past patrons, Phyllis Stahl and Ruth Ann Klotz.

Mary Jane Bishop and Jean Beach, owners of the Bishop and Beach Doll Factory, have come out with a talkable doll. The first customer was Judy Hartman, who purchased three of them.

Lewis Frantz, the 6'4" center star of the Fort Wayne Pistons made the startling record of 90 points in the game against the St. Louis Tigers. Perhaps he was inspired by the enthusiastic cheerleader, his former classmate, Dorothy Waltermire.
